GOD INVITES

Father, I know there are many people hurting here today. There are people who are lonely and they want desperately somebody to love them. We want to love and be loved. And we honor that and ask you to bring somebody in their life that would cherish them and give them that love they deserve and they need. I know that you love them and I know this church loves them. I know this is a family that loves. We ask you to bring people into the lives of those who want to love and be loved. And Lord, whether we ever marry or not we need to learn this lesson of love because you've called us to love everybody, even our enemies. Even the foreigner, the immigrant, the people who are different from us in religion, lifestyle. Lord, we are not allowed to not love anybody if we claim your name. I pray that we would feel your grace so that we can extend it to others. I pray that we would understand the freedom that you have given to us so that we may express that faith and freedom to others. Thank you, Lord, that you don't drag us down and nag us down but you build us up. Help us to do that with others. Thank you that you've never given up on us. For those who are just teetering and wavering right now, some who are on the verge of an affair, some out in a full blown one right now. Bring them back to you lovingly in a new sense. Make Bible Baptist Church of Palmetto be known as that's the place where they build marriages, where they build relationships, where they build families, where they build friendships, where they build small groups.

Father, thank you for those who are making decisions for you today. We commit them to you. In Jesus name. Amen.
